NGV Kids On Tour Activities

Make A Party Hat

Take The Cake

Party Games

These three activities celebrate the NGV exhibition, Let's Party! Fashion for Kids Designed by Danielle Brustman. Hats, cakes and games feature at parties, family gatherings and cultural milestones. They help mark life's special moments. Join us at any or all of these activities for lots of creative party fun.

What's New?

For this activity, children are encouraged to have a conversation with an adult about how phones and everyday life have changed over the years. Together, they can share stories, compare the past and present, and draw pictures that show what they've learned from their conversation.

Perfume In The 1700s

Inspired by this small Wedgwood bottle decorated with raised classical designs and topped with a silver lid and jasperware stopper, this drawing activity asks young people to complete the design. Using their favourite imagery from nature, fantasy, street art, or pop culture, participants will be encouraged to imagine and express their personal style

Nature And Us: Olaf Breuning For Kids

Children are invited to explore the natural world through engaging in creative activities by contemporary artist, Olaf Breuning. Take a walk through the forest with artist Olaf Breuning in My Nature Book. Then learn about forest habitats, the relationships between plants and discover how different environments support wildlife.
