

FRIDAY 20 MAY

10-11am Art Spiegelman
 For more than 50 years, Art Spiegelman has defined and redefined the world of visual storytelling. Appearing live via video, he reflects on his Pulitzer Prize-winning masterpiece MAUS, censorship and prejudice, with host Morris Gleitzman.

Libraries Cobram Euroa Nagambie Nathalia Numurkah Tatura Shepparton

12-1pm Michelle de Kretser & Christos Tsiolkas
 Two of the biggest names in Australian literature, Michelle de Kretser (Scary Monsters) and Christos Tsiolkas (7 1/2) come together to discuss their latest books with Roanna Gonsalves.

Libraries Cobram Euroa Nathalia Tatura Shepparton

2-3pm Steve Toltz: Here Goes Nothing
 Booker-shortlisted author Steve Toltz discusses his highly anticipated new novel, Here Goes Nothing, live via video with acclaimed author of The Believer, Sarah Krasnostein

Libraries Cobram Euroa Shepparton

4-5pm But Not Forgotten
 Listen to this remembrance of writers past, including Jackie Huggins on bell hooks; Sarah Krasnostein on Joan Didion; Melissa Lucashenko on Keri Hulme; and others. Hosted by Susan Wyndham.

Libraries Cobram Euroa Mooroopna Shepparton Violet Town

SATURDAY 21 MAY

10-11am Barrie Cassidy & Friends: Election 2022
 The only thing more essential for election 2022 than a sausage in a bread roll is this panel featuring Barrie Cassidy, Fran Kelly and Niki Savva

Libraries Euroa Mooroopna Nagambie Nathalia Numurkah Shepparton Violet Town

12-1pm Derecka Purnell: Becoming Abolitionists
 Lawyer, organiser and writer Derecka Purnell (Becoming Abolitionists) speaks about abolition as a commitment to finding different answers to the problem of harm in society.

Libraries Euroa Mooroopna Shepparton

Sydney Writers' Festival

Friday 20 – Sunday 22 May
 Live Streaming Schedule

SUNDAY 22 MAY

12-1pm Where Angels Fear to Tread
 Hannah Marshall, Chris Masters and Kate McClymont choose their words carefully with Erik Jensen to explore why Australia's defamation laws are the harshest in the world, and what impact this has on good public discourse.

Libraries Shepparton

2-3pm Liane Moriarty & Caroline Overington
 International phenomenon Liane Moriarty discusses her new Novel Apples Never Fall and the art of suspense-driven fiction with Literary Editor of The Australian Caroline Overington (The Cuckoo's Cry).

Libraries Shepparton

FRIDAY 20 MAY

- 10-11am Art Spiegelman
For more than 50 years, Art Spiegelman has defined and redefined the world of visual storytelling. Appearing live via video, he reflects on his Pulitzer Prize-winning masterpiece MAUS, censorship and prejudice, with host Morris Gleitzman.
Libraries Cobram Euroa Nagambie Nathalia Numurkah Tatura Shepparton
-
- 12-1pm Michelle de Kretser & Christos Tsiolkas
Two of the biggest names in Australian literature, Michelle de Kretser (Scary Monsters) and Christos Tsiolkas (7 1/2) come together to discuss their latest books with Roanna Gonsalves.
Libraries Cobram Euroa Nathalia Tatura Shepparton
-
- 2-3pm Steve Toltz: Here Goes Nothing
Booker-shortlisted author Steve Toltz discusses his highly anticipated new novel, Here Goes Nothing, live via video with acclaimed author of The Believer, Sarah Krasnostein
Libraries Cobram Euroa Shepparton
-
- 4-5pm But Not Forgotten
Listen to this remembrance of writers past, including Jackie Huggins on bell hooks; Sarah Krasnostein on Joan Didion; Melissa Lucashenko on Keri Hulme; and others. Hosted by Susan Wyndham.
Libraries Cobram Euroa Mooroopna Shepparton Violet Town

SATURDAY 21 MAY

- 10-11am Barrie Cassidy & Friends: Election 2022
The only thing more essential for election 2022 than a sausage in a bread roll is this panel featuring Barrie Cassidy, Fran Kelly and Niki Savva
Libraries Euroa Mooroopna Nagambie Nathalia Numurkah Shepparton Violet Town
-
- 12-1pm Derecka Purnell: Becoming Abolitionists
Lawyer, organiser and writer Derecka Purnell (Becoming Abolitionists) speaks about abolition as a commitment to finding different answers to the problem of harm in society.
Libraries Euroa Mooroopna Shepparton

Sydney Writers' Festival

Friday 20 – Sunday 22 May
Live Streaming Schedule

SUNDAY 22 MAY

- 12-1pm Where Angels Fear to Tread
Hannah Marshall, Chris Masters and Kate McClymont choose their words carefully with Erik Jensen to explore why Australia's defamation laws are the harshest in the world, and what impact this has on good public discourse.
Library Shepparton
-
- 2-3pm Liane Moriarty & Caroline Overington
International phenomenon Liane Moriarty discusses her new Novel Apples Never Fall and the art of suspense-driven fiction with Literary Editor of The Australian Caroline Overington (The Cuckoo's Cry).
Library Shepparton

